WANT TO TALK MORE ABOUT THE PLAY?

Here are some suggested conversations starters for after you've watched the show:

What do you think Josie was on trial for?

Will she tell someone about what happened? And what might happen next in her life?

Is it important to tell someone if you're worried or upset?

Is it possible to question people who have power over you? And when is it not a good idea to do so?

What kind of support would a friend need if they were in Josie's situation?
